Permit and Fee Information

Commercial Construction permits are issued by the City of Fredericksburg building department. Fees that are associated with Fredericksburg Fire EMS department will be collected by the building department when a construction permit is granted for new or modified construction. Such fees may include but are not limited to:

- Permit Fees
- Plan Review Fees
- Site Plan Review Fees

The normal fee due for issuance of a construction permit (new or modified construction) is $125.00 This includes the Permit, plan review fee and the site plan review fee.

If the project requires a fire detection/suppression system or/and a Class A vent hood then additional fees and a separate permit for the installation and inspection of these systems will be assessed by the Fire Marshals office prior to the permit being issued. This requires that plans be submitted for approval and the receipt of any associated fees prior to the permit being issued. Fees can either be mailed in or paid for in person at the City of Fredericksburg Fire EMS Department located at 124 West Main Street, Fredericksburg, Texas. If paid for by mail, the permit can either be mailed or sent via email at the request of the permit applicant.

Please see the Fire Marshal's page on the City of Fredericksburg Web Site for the current list of fees.
