

REOPENING TEXAS BUSINESSES

Business/Permit Type	Activity	Business Classification	Reopen Status
Restaurants	Dine-in service	If alcohol sales make up 51% of gross receipts or greater	Not allowed.
		If alcohol sales make up less than 51% of gross receipts	Allowed May 1 at 25% occupancy.*
Breweries, wineries or distilleries	Dine-in service	Taprooms/tasting rooms without food service or those with permanent food service and alcohol sales that make up 51% of gross receipts or greater	Not allowed (but curbside pickup may continue).
		Taprooms/tasting rooms with permanent food service and alcohol sales that make up less than 51% of gross receipts	Allowed May 1 at 25% occupancy.*
	In-store retail at tap/tasting rooms for off-premise consumption (includes quick tasting)	All	Allowed May 1 at 25% occupancy.*
	Manufacturing	All	May continue manufacturing as an essential business.
Brewpubs	Dine-in service/On-premise consumption	Brewpubs without permanent food service or those with permanent food service and alcohol sales that make up 51% of gross receipts or greater	Not allowed.
		Brewpubs with permanent food service and alcohol sales that make up less than 51% of gross receipts	Allowed May 1 at 25% occupancy.*
	In-store retail for off-premise consumption (includes quick tasting)	All	Allowed May 1 at 25% occupancy.*
	Manufacturing	All	May continue manufacturing as an essential business.
Bars	All	All	Not allowed. May be allowed in later phases of reopening.
Grocery stores, convenience stores and package stores	In-store retail for off-premise consumption	All	May continue operating as an essential business.
Distributors/wholesalers	All	All	May continue operating as an essential business.

Note: Businesses allowed to open that are also in Texas counties with five or fewer COVID-19 cases may be allowed to reopen at 50% occupancy May 1, if those counties meet the criteria established under Gov. Abbott's plan. Contact your county officials to learn more.

Businesses authorized by law or by a statutory suspension to conduct alcohol sales for delivery or to-go may do so as indicated here.