City Launches Redesigned Website

Fredericksburg, TX - The City of Fredericksburg, along with the cooperative efforts of CivicPlus, recently completed a redesign of their existing website. This site went live on Tuesday, June 1, 2021.

“We are excited about the look and functionality of the new site. Several years have passed since the last redesign, and it was time to regroup and freshen up this important tool,” stated Lea Feuge, Public Information Officer.

Transparency is of utmost importance to the City of Fredericksburg. Modules built within the website and links to outside agencies allow residents and visitors to sign up for different categories of notifications.
